

Household Goods

Household goods include a wide range of items used in daily home life to maintain cleanliness, comfort, and functionality. This category covers cleaning supplies, kitchenware, storage solutions, home décor, laundry essentials, and other utilities that contribute to a well-organized and efficient living space. These products are designed to enhance convenience, improve hygiene, and support a smooth-running household.